

Registered DIFC Court Users

SAVE 25%

DIFC Courts Rules Set

Up-to-date, easy and direct access to DIFC Courts' official rules

This looseleaf provides easy access for the first time in print to the DIFC Courts' official rules and is published with the official sanction of the DIFC Courts themselves and the Academy of Law, who are book's authors.

In recent years, the DIFC Courts Dubai's English language, common law Courts have been growing in popularity as a venue for commercial disputes and to enforce judicial decisions. Since 2011, this court has had the remit to hear any civil or commercial case where both parties select the DIFC Courts' jurisdiction in their original contracts or agreements, or post dispute, as well as civil or commercial cases related to the DIFC. This has meant a growing number of parties with no connection to the DIFC are agreeing to submit to its jurisdiction, making easy access to these rules even more essential for law firms and legal practitioners.

All 55 Parts of the DIFC Courts Rules are produced in full and logically split with guide cards between the parts and part indexes to make it far simpler to find and access information relevant to your dispute.

As well as the Court rules for the DIFC's recently established Wills & Probate Registry, this book covers a range of topics including:

- Court Documents
- Starting Proceedings
- Disputing Jurisdiction
- Defence and Reply
- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Interim Remedies
- Small Claims and Insolvency Proceedings

This is a single volume looseleaf, and updates will be issued following changes to the DIFC Courts' Rules (invoiced separately on publication). The DIFC Courts rules are also published in Ebook format for more information contact middle.east@lexisnexis.co.uk

ALSO AVAILABLE AS AN EBOOK

For the first time the DIFC Courts' official rules are produced in Epub format with the official sanction of the DIFC Courts themselves and the Academy of Law, who are book's authors.

As well as giving portability, which can be useful when you are out with clients, with this format it is possible to use advanced reading functionality, including the ability to search, highlight and make your own notes on relevant parts of the rules. This can help speed access into relevant parts of the rules making research much quicker. These features depend on the device and eReader software you use, so refer to your device and software documentation for more details on this.

ABOUT THE DIFC COURTS RULES

The DIFC laws and regulations are developed by the DIFC Authority (DIFCA) and the Dubai Financial Services Authority (DFSA). The DIFCA is responsible for the laws and regulations that regulate the non-financial activities within the DIFC including employment law, companies and commercial law and real estate law. The DFSA is responsible for the laws and regulations relating to the all financial and ancillary services within the DIFC. The DIFC Courts will apply the DIFC's laws and regulations, all of which are listed under Laws and Regulations, unless the parties explicitly agree that another law governs their dispute.

EDITORIAL BOARD

Dr. Harold Koster, Dean: College of Law, University of Dubai

Dr. Harold Koster is Dean of the College of Law at the University of Dubai. He is involved in the LLM in Arbitration Law & Dispute Resolution and the LLM in Financial Crimes & Compliance. Harold was born in the Netherlands and studied tax, corporate and criminal law at the University of Groningen. He also studied law in Aberdeen and Leeds and earned a PhD at Erasmus University Rotterdam. He worked for more than ten years as a lawyer before he became a (part time) judge in the Court of Appeal in Amsterdam. He has lived in Dubai since 2011.

David Gallo, Director: Academy of Law

David Gallo is the first Director of the Academy of Law. He brings more than twenty years of international legal and business experience to the newly established support body for the UAE legal community. He is a licensed US lawyer (active; UAE attested) who began his career as a corporate counsel before moving into operational and commercial roles with companies in the United States, United Kingdom, United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia. The majority of his career has been spent with General Electric subsidiaries, while his most recent role was as CEO of a trading unit of an Abu Dhabi-based family-owned conglomerate. David has lived and worked in multiple jurisdictions, having worked on project assignments in the US, Western Europe, Saudi Arabia, UAE, Kazakhstan, Brazil, Chile, China, Korea and Thailand.

Clifford Lewis, Learning and Development Officer: Academy of Law

Clifford joined the Dispute Resolution Authority as Training and Development Officer for the Academy of Law in November 2015. He is a licensed Psychologist and Human Resource Management scholar currently involved in Doctoral research at the School of Business and Management at Queen Mary College, University of London. His research interests are in equality and diversity within the leadership structures of organisations. Clifford has worked as a training specialist in various industries in both South Africa and the United Kingdom, including retail, manufacturing, financial services and higher education. He holds several academic awards, including a Stellenbosch University Leadership Bursary, a Studentship from the Centre for Research in Equality and Diversity at Queen Mary College and an award for Best Paper which he received at the Conference on Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in Munich in 2014. Clifford is also a published academic author in the field of organisational leadership.

Natasha Bakirci, Assistant Registrar: DIFC Courts

Natasha Bakirci joined the DIFC Courts in February 2012 as Judicial Clerk and was appointed Assistant Registrar in November of that year. She oversees daily case progression and is responsible for dealing with procedural enquiries from practitioners and the public. Natasha established the DIFC Courts' Academy in 2012, in conjunction with Thomson Reuters, and has recently helped to draft the Courts' new Code of Best Legal Professional Practice – among the first Codes of Ethics for lawyers in the region. Natasha also co-wrote the Courts' recent Enforcement Guide, which sets out the legal framework governing the enforcement of DIFC Courts' judgments and orders outside the DIFC. Natasha was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2006. She has an LLB from the University of London (2001) and an LLM Masters in Public International Law from the London School of Economics (2003). Natasha comes to the Courts after five years with the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg

Claire Melvin, Publisher Lexis Middle Law: LexisNexis

ORDER FORM

PRODUCT

DIFC COURTS RULES SET

Format:

Looseleaf

Ebook

Published: April 30, 2016

ISBN/ISSN: 9781474303545

Price: AED 1,000 (AED 750 DIFC Courts Users)

First 100
orders for court users get a
50% discount

*(includes a free e-book
& free first annual update)*

CONTACT DETAILS

ALL FIELDS MUST BE COMPLETED IN BLOCK LETTERS

First name		Last name
Job title
Company
Email
Telephone		Fax
Mobile
Address
Country		PO Box

PLEASE COMPLETE YOUR CREDIT CARD DETAILS BELOW – For Guarantee Purposes Only

Amount in USD		Type of Card
Card Code (3 digits on the back)		Expiry
Card Number

Signature		Date
-----------	--	------	--

Please email completed order form to Tracey Wood at tracey.wood@lexisnexis.co.za